Full job description

Your new company

Hays is in partnership with a number of leading accommodation and catering service providers which operate throughout Western Australia, and is the market leader for Soft Services WA. You will have the support behind you from industry experts who are dedicated in delivering the best service and opportunities possible for our candidates.

Your new role

These will be mixed utility positions, and require candidates to be flexible to work to work day shift and night shift, as well to be flexible to work in all departments including but not limited to; housekeeping, kitchen hand, mine site cleaning, laundry, bar etc.

What you'll need to succeed

Candidates must have recent experience in a FIFO utility position.

You will also have the following (or be able to obtain):

- A current National Police Clearance (within 3 months)
- A Safe Food Handling Certificate
- RSA: Responsible Service of Alcohol Certificate (obtained in WA)
- have or be willing to complete Rio Tinto, FMG and BHP inductions
- Provide 2 contactable references
- Located in WA

What you'll get in return

These are casual positions to begin with, however suitable candidates may be offered permanent 2/1 or 3/1 ongoing rosters once we have found you your ideal site. All flights, meals and accommodation will be provided whilst on site. As mentioned, you will receive ongoing work by our growing and dedicated team to ensure you are getting the best service, as well as the best job opportunities.
