Full job description

Your new company

Our client is currently operating from various demanding camps across the Bowen Basin. They are currently looking for candidates with proven experience in housekeeping duties to commence immediately.

Your new role

Your duties will include but not limited to:

- Undertake physical work
- Bed making
- Cleaning amenities (toilets, showers, and sinks),
- Vacuuming and dusting.

You will need to be physically fit; you will have another housekeeper in support with you to make work quick and efficient.

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be successful for this role you must have a proven track record working within a commercial housekeeping role. You will need to be able to complete all tasks that are assigned to you, and a high standard and have safety as your number one priority. You will need to hold the following:

- Current Drivers Licence
- Own reliable transport
- Proven housekeeping experience

What you'll get in return

If you are successful for this position; you will be rewarded with an attractive hourly rate with Superannuation on all hours worked. You will be offered meals and accommodation while on your working stints. You will have access to multiple working sites throughout the Bowen Basin. You will be paid on a weekly basis. You will be allocated with PPE to perform your duties safely.
