Full job description

Are you ready to make a difference in the lives of others, and your own?

As an Employment Consultant your role will be to help job seekers become work ready and find suitable and sustainable employment. APM delivers Employment Services Programs from over 400 sites nationally and you'll be based at our Lismoresite. We lift people up, supporting them in employment, independence and improved wellbeing. It's exciting, challenging, inclusive and rewarding. Together we aspire to enable better lives for our own people and the people we serve.

Who are you?

You love working in a productive and collaborative environment, and want to bring your drive, passion and most importantly your first-class customer service to a role where you are enabling better lives. Happy to step up and take responsibility, you're looking for a career where you can make an impact and genuinely help people. You're good at building relationships – and that will allow you to work with key stakeholders to maximise job opportunities for everyone. You'll also enjoy helping colleagues so that we can achieve great results and make a difference, together.

Am I suited to being an Employment Consultant with APM?

We find people with a background in delivering great customer service such as retail, call centre operators, hospitality, consulting, business development, and administration are well suited to this role. Your desire to help people and meet business objectives will make you a good fit for an Employment Consultant role. We provide full training, and we'll help you turn your skills into a new
